

What is DEMOS about?

The Master Degree in Democratic Governance and Human Rights “DEMOS” Project was launched in November 2019 and it will be implemented within the next three years, co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Commission.

DEMOS is implemented by a consortium of nine (9) partners from five (6) countries: Morocco, Lebanon, Tunisia, Netherlands, Spain and Greece.

The project’s innovative character lies on the fact that it aims to create a new Master Degree in a specialized academic field giving attention to acquiring practical operational skills. In addition, it will make available an interactive and flexible e-learning program, tailored-made to the specific needs of the partner countries.

Which are the objectives of DEMOS?

The DEMOS Project aims to develop a two-year multidisciplinary Master Program in Democratic Governance and Human Rights.

The curriculum development and the educational tools will be an outcome of a collaborative process and of the exchange of knowledge and good practices in the field of governance and human rights. The latest developments in education and training will be taken into consideration.

DEMOS activities will:

- Advance Education & Research,
 - Build Capacity & Infrastructures
 - Raise Awareness & Train Professionals,
 - Foster Networking & Knowledge Transfer foster cooperation between the EU and the Partner Countries by promoting common research activities.

Which are the objectives of DEMOS?

The DEMOS Project activities were launched at the partnership kick-off meeting, held in the city Meknes (Morocco), on the 17th and 18th of February 2020. During the meeting, the University Moulay Ismail, which is the Lead Partner presented the main objectives and activities of the Project, while the partners leading each WP presented the foreseen deliverables and their results. All partners vibrantly interacted and exchanged educational experiences, since diverse cultures from Europe and Southeast Asia met together for the inauguration of the preliminary practices that will define the new study programme of the project.
